faleu que racismo quando não existe só é valido se considerado a definição do racismo na qual ele é um problema da esfera coletiva e ainda é estrutural, nesse aspecto o racismo depende da relação do poder.

Se o racismo é simplificado no referencial Individual fica claro que ele não é pertinente à um único grupo de pessoas e pode ser praticado por pessoas brancas

Isso rende o suficiente para se deixar levar por tal Grande simplificação da Relação Humana

State is the organization of political means;

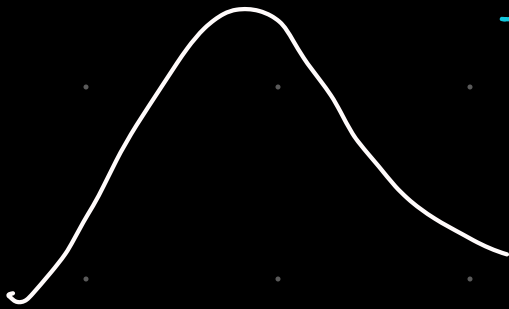

The means act as buffer effect for the State's Gov resisting change in any meaningful way

The State Gov ① controls society as much as society controls the status quo o people tend to reprimand different world views

Given that a person's beliefs in the collective can be attributed to randomness with weight, it follows Dissonance

The most recurrent belief in a society tends to be the most taught for the next Gen

Therefore the most prevalent set of opinions constitute the status quo, and the people who defend them a label themselves as rebels fail to acknowledge this simple Truth

II.

NO STATE BRINGS THE WORST OF MANKIND

What is prejudicial for the individual is prejudicial for the collective, in this way states will do the bare minimum to uphold the welfare of its citizens in a way it can ~~both~~ maintain control ~~and~~ profit over its populace
